BIDS FOR SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Commissioners Receive Proposals for the Third Time.

Bids were opened at the District building today for constructing an eight-room public school at the corner of 2d street and South Carolina avenue southeast, and an eightroom school at the corner of 15th and Gale streets northeast. Bids received for these schools have twice been rejected because they exceeded the amount available for their erection, but it is believed they can be built under those received today. For the construction of the school in the southeast section the Commissioners have about $27,550 available, exclusive of $2,500 for the heating apparatus; while for the school in the northeast they have, exclusive of $2.500 for the heating apparatus, about $24,200. The bids received today were as follows: D. F. Mockabee, $51,929 for both schools, or $25,737 for the one at 15th and Gale streets, and $26,434 for the one at 2d street and South Carolina avenue; N. H. Thomas, $25,492 for the one in the southeast section and $24,492 for the other, with a reduction of $492 as to each provided certain minor alterations are made: Pavarini & Greer, $25,900 for the school at 15th and Gale streets, with $1,761 added if the first story be made fireproof, and $3,300 additional if both stories are made fireproof. For furnishing the heating apparatus, H. I. Gregory bid $2,150 for each school; Philadelphia Steam Heating Company, $2,723 for each, and Warren W. Biggs Heating and Ventilating Company, $2,961 for each. The plans on which the bids were based were prepared in the office of the District inspector of buildings, and, if erected, the schools will be in the simple colonial style There will be four entrances to each build-ing, two in the basement and two on the first floor. In describing these plans to a Star reporter last week, Mr. Snowden Ashford, the assistant inspector of buildings, inadvertently stated that there would be but two entrances to the buildings.

DENT IN HER BOW

Accident to British Yacht Shamrock in the Launching.

COLLIDED WITH A BIG BARGE

Cup Challenger's Baptism Made a Brilliant Society Function.

LADY RUSSELL CHRISTENER

LONDON, June 26.-Sir Thomas Lipton's up challenger Shamrock was launched at o'clock this afternoon at Millwall.

As the Shamrock reached midstream from the slips a barge collided with her, strikng the yacht's bow above the water line and making a big dent. The full extent of the damage done has not been ascertained. Five hundred workmen completed the preparations for the launch and the occasion is now being observed as a general holiday. On a little spot among the forest of masts, halling from every quarter of the globe, a large tent, gaily decorated with flags, was erected opposite the yacht, which stood on the slips, ready for the water, and flying stars and stripes and union jacks. The crowds of people who had no chance of seeing anything out of the ordinary assembled during the morning in the vicinity of the yard and detachments of police ap-peared to preserve order. From the river little could be seen except the stern of the yacht, where, in bright, golden letters, shone the name "Shamrock.

Lunch Before Launching.

Previous to the launch, Sir Thomas Lipton gave a lunch at the Savoy Hotel to the guests invited to the ceremony. They induded Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, the Marquis of Dufferin, the Earl and Countess of Clanwilliam, Lady Russell of Killowen, Lilian Russell, Mr. Schomberg. Killowen, Lilian Russell, Mr. Schomberg, Kerr McDonnell, principal private secretary to the Marquis of Salisbury; Sir George Faudel Philipps, former mayor of London, and Lady Phillips, Herbert Gladstone, Major Sharman-Crawford, W. Walsh and H. M. McGilldowney, the last three repre-senting the Royal Ulster Yacht Club. After the usual loyal toasts, Admiral Beresford proposed the success of the Shamrock and briefly sketched the strug-gles of times gone by, and Sir Thomas Lip-des of times gone by, and Sir Thomas Lip-on's "gallant entry into the breach" and rhallenge for the cup. Then, the admiral, a breezy style, raised his glass and said: "Now we come to the last scene but one. May the Shamrock win a fair, square race and may she have the additional baliast of the America's cup when she returns." The guests heartily raised their glasses in esponse, and the owner of the Shamrock nodestly repied with a few words of Christened by Lady Russell.

After lunch the party drove to Samuda's yard in two coaches, Admiral Beresford friving the first. They were the object of much attention while proceeding down the Thames embankment and through the city and White Chapel.

Lady Russell christened the yacht with the customary bottle of champagne, say-"I christen you Shamrock, God bless you! Good luck to you! May you bring back the cub." Three cheers were then given, and, on a signal from Lady Russell, the boat and the cradle glided safe y into the water. After the launch the party assembled in the adjoining tent and had tea. The health of the Shamrock was drunk and congratuatory speeches were made.

RAN AWAY FROM THE DEFENDER. Successful Trial of the America's Cup Yacht Columbia.

The first trial trip of the new American cup defender Columbia, which took place in Narragansett bay yesterday, was more successful than either her builders or her owners had reason to hope. Not only did the new boat show herself to be able in every particular, but she met the old racer Defender in a friendly brush of a mile to windward and vanquished her with the greatest ease. The race between the flyers, which was over in five minutes, was sailed in an eightknot breeze under the same conditions, each boat carrying three lower sails, with sheet well flattened. It took the Columbia about three minutes, sailing from the De-fender's weather quarter, to blanket her, and in five minutes she was 100 yards ahead, going past the old cup defender as if the latter were anchored. Under these conditions it would seem as if the Columbia were from 15 to 20 seconds a mile faster than the Defender, and if she can make the same gain in a hard blow anxiety as to the safety of the America's cup will as to the safety of the America's cup will be considerably allayed.

The trip yesterday was the builders' trial, and although the managing owner, C. Oli-ver Isedin, and a number of his yachting friends were on board, still the Columbia's designer, Nat Herreshoff, was in charge, and after the sail down the bay the boat was towed back to Bristol for a few minor repairs. It is expected the boat will have another trial either today or tomorrow, and that by the end of the week she will be formally turned over to Mr. Iselin. In the meantime her interior fittings will be finished and her bowsprit, which apparently started in the socket in yesterday's brush with the Defender, probably will need some attention. Before the Columbia left for Bristol Mr. Iselin expressed himself as being more than satisfied with himself as being more than satisfied with

LINDSAY IN THE TOILS.

The Rival of Joe Mulhalton is Arrested in London.

Detective Tait of Philadelphia sailed from New York Saturday on the Umbria armed with requisition papers issued by the State Department for C. H. Forbes Lindsay, who is held in London on a charge of embezzling $1,411.50 from the Mutual Insurance Company of Philadelphia while an agent of that company. The man was arrested in Londonderry and taken thence to London,

Lindsay is well known in Washington. and his last appearance here was last winter, when he was accompanied by an at-tractive woman, who was apparently de-voted to him and who he introduced as his wife. He regaled those who came in con-tact with him with most marvelous recitals of his experiences. According to his statements, he was thirty-eight years old and had been an English army officer in pretty nearly every spisode since the charge of the Light Brigade. He recounted with gusto his life at Calcutta, when he was on the staff of Bulwer-Lytton, while viceroy of India and detailed his experiences when Prince Napoleon was killed by the Zulus in South Africa.

He had held, he declared, the head of the prince, and removed the deadly assegal from his bosom as the dying man expired. His experiences in America, according to his own accounts, were scarcely less start-ling. He had gone to Chicago, he said, without newspaper experience, but had im-mediately been made editor of Frank Law-ler's newspaper and afterward became lead-ing man on the Herald. He professed to have been in the thick of the Haymarket riots, and to have complete knowledge of the con-spiracy that resulted in the death of Dr.

Coughlin. Lindsay first came to Washington a couple of years ago, and was employed as an agent of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, and later was engaged with other companies. Leaving the city under some-thing of a cloud, he went to Baltimore and edited a whist publication, being an adept at that game.

He afterward went to Philadelphia and became connected with the Mutual Life Insurance Company. In this capacity, it is alleged by the company, he collected a pre-mium of $1,411.50 on a $20,000 policy and failed to make return. While in Washington Lindsay was a man of good appearance and pleasing address, and had every mark of a well-bred, well-educated and well-to-do Englishman. He had a remarkable command of language, and dressed his Mulhaltonisms in such attractive guise that only the initiated could perceive the masquerade. A man who had listened to him attentively for several days of constant reminiscence and had kept notes of his conversations de-clared today that if all Lindsay had said was true he must have been a Mahatma with about a dozen astral bodies. "I found after comparing his stories with each other," remarked the gentleman, "that there wasn't a sensational incident in any part of the English-speaking globe that has happened in the last twenty years that Lindsay hadn't figured in as an importhat Lindsay hadn't figured in as an impor-tant factor or an immediate bystander."

CLAIMED BY ANOTHER

Complication Over Col. Gayner's Marriage to Miss Pitney of This City.

CLAIM OF A PRIOR UNION

Local Minister Says the Ceremony Here Was Regular.

COUPLE NOW IN LONDON

The marriage of Col. John F. Gaynor, the contractor, politician and treasurer of the democratic state committee of New York, to Miss Annie L. Pitney, the pretty Shoreham Hotel typewriter, of this city, has awakened more interest and brought about more notoriety than the couple anticipated or cared to have accorded them. Cel. Gaynor was married, it will be remembered, to Miss Pitney June 10 last at Rockville, Md. by Rev. C. C. Morhart of 228 Morgan street, Washington. The marriage was a secret for a week or more, but finally found its way into the public press. With the appearance of the announcement came an advertisement in one of the New York papers which purported to tell of the marriage of John F. Gaynor to Caroline B. Gifford, by Rev. O. L. Prescott, in New York, September 2, 1890."

This notice, stating the claim of a second woman, fell like a bombshell upon the friends of Col. Gayner in New York, and the many friends and acquaintances of Miss Pitney in this city. The former is prominent in political affairs of the empire state and is one of the best known men in the east. His marriage to Miss Pitney was a surprise; the announcement inserted in the papers by Caroline B. Gifford was a shock was a shock,

So far there has been no attempt on the part of the people concerned to straighten out the very pretty tangle the marital af-fairs of the groom seem to be in. When seen in London yesterday by a correspondent of one of the New York papers, Col Gaynor refused to have anything to say upon the subject. The politician and his Washington wife have been abroad, sailing dmost directly after the performance of the eremony.

There is no doubt as to the legality of the Washington, for more properly, the Rockville marriage, in so far as the cere mony itself was concerned. Rev. Mr. Mor hart, the officiating clergyman, was found at his home today by a reporter for The Star. When questioned as to the marriage, ie said:

ne said:

There is nothing peculiar or sensational about the marriage of Col. Gaynor to Miss Pitney. The ceremony took place in Rock-ville the morning of June 10. A party of using the control of the co journeyed to the Maryland town and made our way through a driving rain storm to the county court-house where the marriage license was secured. The ceremony was promptly performed and was witnessed by Mrs. Pitney, mother of the bride, her two brothers and a sister, and by Mrs. Boyd. who lives on Morgan street. A large num-ber of other relatives and friends were invited to join the wedding party, but did not accompany us to Rockville, on account of the storm prevailing at the time. The return issued with the license was turned back into the clerk's office at the Rockville court house, Mr. and Mrs. Gaynor were given their marriage certificate and the ceremony was over.

"I have known Col. Gaynor for many years. He has been acquainted with Miss Pitney for a number of years, and has been courting her for some time past. I have never heard of the Gifford woman. will never believe that Col. Gaynor is anything but honest and upright in every Mrs. Pitney, who lives at 1429 U street

Mrs. Pitney, who lives at 1125 to stree, in this city, substantiates the statement made by Rev. Mr. Morhart. Her faith in her son-in-law is unshaken. She said he had been a widower for a number of years. If he had been married the world would have known of it long ago. Frank Gifferd, a brother of the New York woman who claims to be Mrs. Gayror No. 1, is in New York, where he says he will protect his sister's interests and good name.

Mrs. Gaynor, as she claims to be, rays she yet, however, no action has been taken and prosecute Col. Gaynor for bigamy. As the matter is still interesting and full of exciting anticipation.

The New York Mrs. Gaynor claims that she was dumfounded when she read the announcement of the marriage of Col. Gay-nor to Miss Pitney of Washington. She does not believe, she declared to interview-ers, that the ceremony here was a proper one. She said also she had been suspicious of "her husband" for the last two years. Rev. O. L. Prescott, who is supposed to have performed the Giford-Gaynor ceremony, is in New Haven at the present time. In September, 1890, the time of the lleged first ceremony, he was a curate in the Little Church Around the Corner in

New York
Col. Gaynor is reported to be worth nearly $2,000,000. He is prominent in military circles in New York, and was on Gov. David B. Hill's staff as aid-de-camp.

Hours for Ladies at Bathing Beach To the Editor of The Evening Star: The arrival of the warm season has turn ed public attention to the great comfort of the bathing beach, which has actually become a feature of the Washington summer. Being patronized by a great many ladies. could it be possible to allow them more comfortable hours? At present three mornings, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, from 7 to 10 o'clock, are allowed them. onsidering the distance of the bathing beach, and the inaccessibility of the locality, it is very difficult, not to say impossible, for a lady, clerk in one of the departments or engaged in private offices or stores, to reap physical benefit from the bath, even if she succeeds in not being late at her place of business. Just fancy: She must leave her home at half-past 6, without breakfast, of course. Even if she reaches the beach at 7 sharp it will take her at least one hour to register, secure her key, unpack, dress, bathe, dress again and re-pack her satchel. It is then 8 o'clock. By the time she reaches home to deposit her bundle, gobble a few mouthfuls and choke down a cup of coffee she gives a quick glance at the clock and rushes madly to her place of business, only to be informed that she is late. The consequence is that the lady bathers are limited to young girls with bikes and no occupation, schools being closed during the warm weather. Mothers of families and an indies employed in one of families and an indies employed in one capacity or other are virtually disbarred.

Men and boys having practically the whole week to themselves, could well afford to allow the ladies two afternoons a week, from 4 till close of day. The point has often been discussed among ladies, and last year with the officials of the beach. The latter were then understood to say that ladies would be allowed to bathe if they came. But the public does not understand it that way. A lady fears that if she scand it that way. A lady lears that if she comes in the afternoon she may either be refused admission or, if allowed to enter, find herself uncomfortably conspicuous. With such an alternative, the prospect of a hot, dusty walk is not very tempting. Could you kindly inform the public in general of the views of the beach state. eral of the views of the beach officials—whether any afternoon is reserved for the ladies, or, there being no special time awarded them, if they can drop in without startling the community? NAIAD.

Couldn't Get Credit.

"If you will give me credit for a week I will pay my fine," Rose Redmond told Judge Kimball today. The remark was made before the court had heard anything about the charge against the woman. Officer Reinhardt told Judge Kimball that he took Rose into custody because she was throwing stones at her husband.

The prisoner admitted the truth of this, but explained that her husband had taken all her money.

Judge Kimball asked Rose what she had Judge Rimball asked Rose what she had to say to a further statement by the policeman that after her arrest she was very disorderly. She was unable to convince the court that the officer was mistaken, and in default of payment of a fine of $10 she went down for thirty days.
